Bin End Collection

CHAMPAGNE / SPARKLING

- Moët & Chandon Brut Imperial 1988 Champagne, France £600.00
The aroma's top notes are subdued, sombre and dry with smoked roasted malted scents, hints of toasted sesame seed as well as rather original oceanic notes, including a touch of nori seaweed. Subsequently come softer, warmer notes of wax, honey, almond, biscuit and dried fruits (banana and coconut). The palate is energetic, sustained by an invigorating tangibleness with notes of citrus zest and citrus seeds. Middle notes are delicate with slight graininess. Nuances of pine and iodine contribute to a crystalline, saline finish.
- Moët & Chandon 1998 Champagne, France £255.00
Beautiful in maturity. Brioche, apricot, apple to the fore, with a honeyed, yeasty quality on the longer palate. Still vibrant and crisp.

WHITE

- Pazo de Rubianes Albarino Rias Baixas, Spain £55.00
Elegant on the nose, with primary notes of apple, pear, orange peel, pineapple and white flowers, with an undertone of fennel and minerality. On the palate, the nose does not disappoint, with a firm body and a balance of crisp fruit upfront, leading to a clean minerality over a lengthy finish.
- Van Lill & Vissier Chenin Blanc Citrusdal Mountain, South Africa £62.50
Enticing stonefruit aromas – nectarine and peach with a tinge of honeyed almonds. The same flavours are apparent in the mouth where they are joined by a touch of green melon. Bright and vivid acid lifts the broad palate and keeps it fresh and vibrant, adding a pithy lemon zest nuance too. Impressively concentrated fruit and lingering flavours. Beautifully balanced and rich.

RED

- Famille Quiot 'Les Duclaux' Gigondas 2017 Chateauneuf du Pape, France £54.50
Dark crimson colour. On the nose, dark berry, leather and light spice aromas. Silky on the palate with powerful tannins and excellent length.
- Bodegas Valdemar 'Balcon de Pilatos' Maturana 2019 Rioja, Spain £59.50
This unique wine is packed with black fruit, coffee, cocoa and subtle spicy notes. On the palate, it combines Rioja flesh with an almost Pauillac-like refinement and acidity, that ensures it remains lively despite its great weight and density. The finish is poised, aromatic and very long.
- Le Tetre Roteboeuf Grand Cru 1996 St-Emilion, France £295.00
This is an outstanding wine produced in the tell-tale style of this well-placed hillside vineyard. The colour is a deep ruby and the nose offers up hedonistic notes of smoky, crème brûlée, roasted coffee and chocolate covered cherries. This medium-bodied wine is exhibiting more structure, muscle than I remember from cask. Sweet aromatics revealing moderate tannin in the very good finish.
(90 Robert Parker - Wine Advocate)

ROSE

- Domaine Vacheron Le Rose MMXX Sancerre, France £59.50
Notes of red fruit, blood orange, sea salt, chalk and spice dominate this refreshing, crisp, dry palate.

- 93 Cuvee Dom Perignon 2009 £350.00
Champagne, France
The bouquet from the 2009 offers notes of guava and spicy green grapefruit zest combined with stone fruit, particularly white peach and nectarine. The aromas open up with the initial fruit infusion being complemented by woody vanilla and warm, lightly toasted brioche. On the palate the fruit is majestic – ripe, fleshy and profound. Beyond the richness and a certain voluptuousness is a strong impression of consistency. Remarkably restrained offering something for all the senses in a convergent harmony.
- 95 Taittinger Brut Prestige Rose n.v £82.50
Champagne, France
Remarkably vibrant and sophisticated. On the palate, a subtle balance between freshness and structure of the ever-present red fruit, making it full bodied and smooth. Its strong character is also shown in its delightfully unique, intense, shimmering colour.

A distinct salty minerality on the nose, and an array of pure, clean, limpid white fruit aromas. The palate almost shimmers with tang and vibrancy, and although it has a steely precision, it is balanced by fruit with a peachy pear-like quality and backed by a vivid streak of lemon and mineral acidity.

PORTUGAL

- 15 Manda-Chuva Branco 2019 £42.50
 Herdade Do Portcarro, Alentejo
On the nose the first impact is freshness, ripe citrus alongside grapefruit and tangerine. On the palate, the beginning is shy, a little closed. With the temperature rising, it starts to reveal all its mystique; mint with lime and a touch of salt. In between, one finds nectarines and loquats, a type of yellow plum. The Manda-Chuva has an admirable persistence, very gastronomic, like all Portocarro wines.

GERMANY

Domaine Faiveley Batard Montrachet Grand Cru Burgundy, France £595.00

An intensely aromatic nose disclosing notes of tart fruits and roasted hazelnut. The palate is smooth and distinctive with excellent balance and a remarkably smooth finish found in only the finest white Burgundies. This wine is evolving beautifully with bottle aging.

Penfolds Grange 1997 Barossa Valley, Australia £600.00

A classic Grange, though slightly softer and more forward than the 1996. The saturated purple-coloured 1997 offers a gorgeously sweet nose of blackberry liqueur, cherries, camphor, chocolate, plums and mocha. Opulently-textured, extremely soft, layered and seductive, with Grange's tell-tale personality well-displayed, but in a seamless, seductive style. This is a superb Grange that can hold its own against the more heralded 1996.

(94 points Wine Advocate)

Chateau Leoville Las Cases 1996 St Julien, France £475.00

Having previously rated it near perfect, I was apprehensive of a let-down about tasting the 1996 Leoville Las Cases once it had been bottled, but that concern was quickly dismissed once I put my nose in the glass. A profound Leoville Las Cases, it is one of the great modern day wines of Bordeaux. This wine's hallmark remains a sur-maturite (over-ripeness) of the Cabernet Sauvignon grape. Yet the wine has retained its intrinsic classicism, symmetry, and profound potential for complexity and elegance. The black/purple colour is followed by spectacular nose of cassis, cherry liqueur, pain grille, and minerals. It is powerful and rich on the attack, with beautifully integrated tannin, massive concentration, yet no hint of heaviness or disjointedness. As this wine sits in the glass it grows in structure and richness. It is remarkable, seamless, palate-staining and extraordinarily elegant wine – the quintessential St-Julien.

(98 Robert Parker Wine Advocate)

Chateau Pontet Canet 2000 Pauillac, France £350.00

Tasted at the Pontet-Canet vertical, the 2000 is perhaps where things start getting interesting, as Alfred Tesseron's top-to-toe reconfiguration of the vineyard and vinification began to impact and ameliorate the wine. It has a lovely bouquet of blackberry and briary fruit, hints of black truffle developing, later damp earth. There is an intensity here, if not the complexity of the best millennial Pauillacs. The palate is medium-bodied with a mixture of red and black fruit, cedar and sous-bois percolating up through and rendering it a serious Pontet-Canet in keeping with the vintage. There is a subtle and yet insistent grip on the finish. It has always been a tannic wine, but these are now softening.

(92 Neal Martin - Wine Advocate)

Ridge Lytton Springs 2016 Sonoma, California £165.00

Complex aromas of vanilla, raspberry and black pepper. Full bodied with firm acidity, focused blackberry and an elegant lingering finish.

Chateau Brane Cantenac 2005 Margeaux, France £400.00

'A sexy style of wine from the Lurtons at Brane Cantenac, this wine has a stunning nose of forest floor, liquorice, blackcurrants, plums and spring flowers. Soft tannin, full-bodied opulence and beautifully textured, lush richness, make for a brilliant wine. In spite of its stunning forward fragrance and lushness, the colour still looks as if it is 3-4 years old, rather than a decade. This is a big time winner in 2005 and should drink well now and for the next 25+ years.

(Robert Parker - Wine Advocate)

Jim Barry 'The Armagh' Shiraz 2009Clare Valley, *Australia£395.00

Deep plum red with purple tints. It shows the hallmarks of low-yielding vines, with intense, tightly coiled aromas of cranberry, mulberry, milk chocolate, boysenberry and spearmint. It is bright, fresh and balanced with intense yet reserved characters of rosemary, sage, cinnamon, cedar and black pepper. On the palate this wine really shows its true colours with solid tannin structure playing an integral role in the overall picture. Flavours of redcurrants, black cherries and blueberries are in abundance, with an undercurrent of freshly turned earth and truffles in the background. The length of flavour and power in this wine, whilst still showing finesse and restraint, is what sets it at the zenith of red winemaking at Jim Barry Wines.

Joseph Phelps Insignia 2015Napa Valley, *California£550.00

The 2015 Insignia is blended of 90% Cabernet Sauvignon, 7% Petit Verdot, 2% Cabernet Franc and 1% Malbec aged for 24 months in 100% new French oak. Deep garnet-purple coloured, it opens with stunning black and red plums, cassis and mulberry scents with loads of redcurrant sparks and compelling wafts of lilacs, pencil shavings, black olives and tinted soil with a hint of bay leaves. Medium to full bodied, the palate explodes with red and blackcurrant fireworks plus some exciting mineral nuances coming through, framed by firm, grainy tannins and fantastic freshness, finishing very long and beautifully layered.

(98 Points, Lisa Perotti-Brown, RobertParker.com)Chateau PoujeauxMoulis, *France£110.00

Medium to deep garnet colour and delivers expressive blackberry preserves, prunes, sautéed herbs and fragrant earth notes with hints of tobacco and fallen leaves. Medium-bodied with refreshing acidity and a chewy texture supporting the earthy flavours in the mouth, it finishes on a stewed tea note.

(90 points Lisa Perroti-Brown, Wine Advocate)

MAGNUMS (1.5L)

Vina Tondonia Tinto Reserva, Bodegas R Lopez de Heredia Haro, Rioja Alta £275.00

Tondonia's extended ageing process results in a wine that is not about fruit but has so much complexity, so much character that it is impossible to put down. The excellent 2004 vintage has brought additional concentration and personality to the wine, which is still unbelievably fresh.

Classic notes of leather, cured meat and spice mingle with warm, macerated red fruits on the nose. The palate is mid-weight, but the true beauty of the 2004 lies in the luxurious mouth-feel and intense core of flavour in the wine.

This freshness, combined with the mouth-coating flavours, suggest that, although a joy to drink now, this is a wine that will hold for at least a decade more. It is, put simply, glorious, traditional, elegant Rioja.

DESSERT WINES

- 200 Chateau d' Yquem 1990 £555.00
Sauternes, France
Possesses lots of elegance and finesse. An exceptionally sweet nose of honeyed tropical fruits, peaches, coconut, and apricots. High quality, subtle toasty oak is well-integrated. Massive on the palate, with layers of intensely ripe botrytis-tinged, exceptionally sweet fruit. Well-integrated acidity, and a seamless, full-bodied power and richness have created a wine of remarkable harmony and purity. Certainly it is one of the richest Yquems I have ever tasted, with 50-100 years of potential longevity. An awesome Yquem!
